

SUMMER PROGRAMS

July 8th-August 15th, 2024

Summer READING Room

This program offers rising 3rd-8th graders the opportunity to practice fundamental reading skills, promote engagement in reading, and prevent “summer slide.” Each READER works one-to-one with a trained volunteer for one hour twice per week.

Rising READers

Rising READers meets 2 mornings per week in a small group setting with a READ 718 instructor. This program for rising 3rd graders will provide an intensive boost of foundational skills with a focus on phonemic awareness, sound and word accuracy, automaticity, spelling, and fluency.

READ 718 Book Club

A small group of rising 5th and 6th graders will meet with a READ 718 staff member to answer discussion questions, complete group activities, and practice in-depth textual analysis and sharing their thoughts with their peers.

READ 718 Writing Workshop

A small group of rising 6th-9th graders will meet with a READ 718 staff member to discuss and practice the art of the persuasive essay. READers will learn the components of a persuasive essay and leave the workshop with a final revised draft and improved confidence in their writing skills!
